AWMARSH/15

1. AEMARSH/15 was contacted and assessed in 1957 in Stockholm. His current employment is unknown. His address is : Sodermannsgaten 24-ii, Stockholm. He uses the following mail drop: P. Menis, Box 11040, Stockholm 11, Sweden.

2. Prior to his recruitment SUBJECT was actively engaged in carrying on x clandestine and overt correspondence with individuals in Latvia e.g. Boris Granovski and the subsequently recruited [] A review of the attached info is enlightening as to how secure any operations conducted by this individual might be. (See Att. "A").

3. Through Paul LIEPINS who has subsequently learned of SUBJECT's AIS affiliations SUBJECT sent a letter sometime in 1956 to Boris Granovski via Paul Braksis, the Latvian sea captain and more recently known as AEMARSH/19. (See Att. "A" and "B").

4. According to AECAMBARO/1 one of SUBJECT's ~~xxx~~ close friends is J. Lukins (~~AECAMBARO/3~~). This may or may not be entirely true. The latter ^{LYKINS} is reputedly none too bright or security conscious. It is the same ~~AECAMBARO/3~~ who has recently been the object of exploitation by a Dr. Harold BERGMANIS, an RIS agent, (See [] Association with ~~AECAMBARO/3~~ might provide the weak link through which RIS ~~xxx~~ can glean information about the SUBJECT. (Att. ^C ~~D~~)

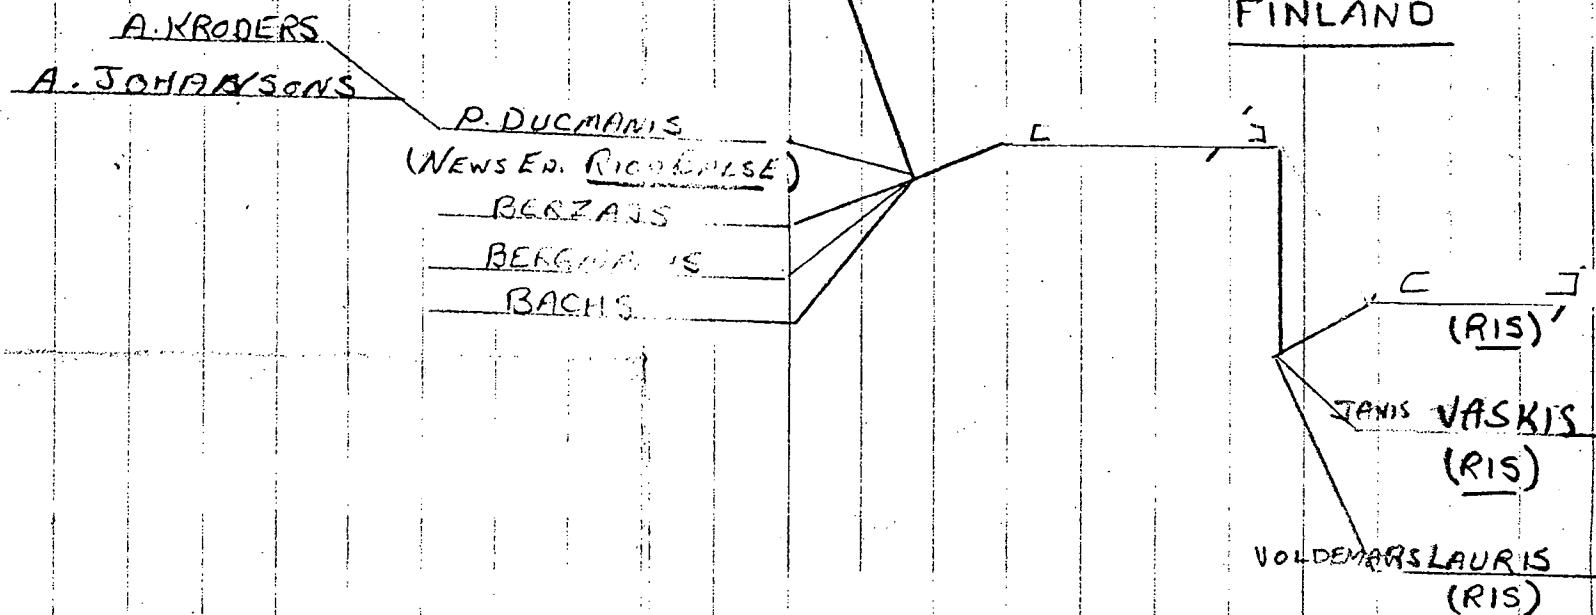

5. SUBJECT ~~xx~~ has been an active correspondent with Vilis HAZNERS in New York. There is considerable evidence that the SUBJECT discusses his activities at some ~~length~~ length with this individual. (See Att. A: OSSW 4613 and OSSW 6279). and Att "D")

6. SUBJECT's rather loose contact with [] through the ~~xxxx~~ years may have made a penetration possible. (See Att. "A" and "D")

7. The SUBJECT appears to have been a questionable operational risk prior to recruitment. Better that he should have been used as a consultant only and not as an active agent. A chart is attached to show some of the other individuals through which the SUBJECT ~~xx~~ has had contact directly or ~~thru~~ indirectly.
